STUDY IN SCOTLAND WEBINAR

(Nicola Cox, UK Student Recruitment Officer – University of Strathclyde)

- Courses are different to England, Wales, Scotland – standard degrees are 4 years (single and joint honours courses) as opposed to 3 years for rest of UK (some courses are longer wherever you study, of course, such as in medicine and veterinary science) and there are a range of flexible and professional degrees

Students take 3 subjects in Year 1 and 2/3 subjects in Year 2

Example – MA English Literature

- Year 1 – English Literature (Level 1) / History (Level 1) / English language (Level 1)
- Year 1 – English Literature (Level 2) / History (Level 2) / Classics (Level 1)
- Year 3 – English Literature (Level 3)
- Year 4 - English Literature (Level 4)

Example – MA Economics and Politics

- Year 1 – Politics (Level 1) / Economics (Level 1) / Philosophy (Level 1)
- Year 2 – Politics (Level 2) / Economics (Level 2) / Geography (level 1)
- Year 3 – Politics / Economics (Level 3)
- Year 4 – Politics / Economics (Level 4)
- Studying abroad – not mandatory but available on a majority of courses - can be for a year or a semester. NO extra tuition fees

- Tuition fees – same as in England/Wales/Northern Ireland – currently £9250 a year – one year is free for most 4- or 5-year degrees - do not pay fees for the final year (4th year)
- It is the same application process as England – UCAS - but check with the university
- There are 4,000-degree options available!
- Law degrees – it is Scots law that is taught at most Scottish universities
- Scotland was voted the most beautiful country in the world, according to Rough Guides, 2019
- There are 7 cities in Scotland – Edinburgh/Glasgow /Dundee/ Stirling/Aberdeen/ Inverness and Perth.
- There are 3 Scottish universities in the QS World University Rankings 2022 – Edinburgh (16th), Glasgow (73rd) and St Andrews (91st)
- Edinburgh hold the world's largest arts festival and the UK's first UNESCO City of Music was Glasgow in 2008
