We seek to use lively minds, to work hard, to develop all our talents and to grow through sharing, to be the best version of ourselves

Welcome to Classics! You will study THREE modules over the course of the two-year A-Level. We will provide text books and literary texts at the start of Year 12. However, if you wish to purchase your own copies of the text books in advance, then please find details below:

MODULE 1: THE WORLD OF THE HERO

This consists of an in-depth study of:

- Homer's Odyssey
- Virgil's Aeneid

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO PREPARE FOR MODULE 1:

(1) It is not necessary to have read the literary texts e.g. Homer's Odyssey or Virgil's Aeneid, before the course begins. However, I would highly recommend reading Homer's Iliad, which is not studied but which is referred to quite often. You might not have time once the course starts.

You can use any translation of the text but here are two recommendations

- Homer, 'Iliad' translated by E.V. Rieu, revised translation by D.C.H. Rieu (Penguin)
- 'Homer: The Iliad – The Killing Fields of Troy', translated by A.S. Kline, online at <http://www.poetryintranslation.com>

(2) You might like to watch a summary on Youtube of the epics we do study, in order to get an idea of the plot outline:

(3) Reading

Perhaps a little beneath you now, but Rick Riordan's novels provide an excellent overall knowledge of Greek myths. There are also many other fiction novels base on ancient Greece or Rome.

There is a wealth of information on Ancient Greece and Rome available on Youtube, Ted-Talks and the BBC (and other TV channels) so have fun browsing and expand your knowledge!
