LOCATION

Louth is a market town of approximately 17,000 people, famous for its thrice weekly market and cattle market. The town centre provides essential services for a large rural area and secondary schools, banks and shopping facilities. The town is famous for its sole proprietor independent retailers, including butchers, bakers and specialist clothing shops etc. In addition, the town accommodates the main High Street banks and national retailers including Boots the Chemist, WH Smith, Millets etc. There are 3 supermarkets in the town, being a Co-operative, Morrison's and Aldi.

The property is situated within the established Nottingham Court industrial development on Nottingham Road, forming part of the wider Fairfield Industrial Estate on the northern edge of Louth. The estate represents the town's principal commercial and industrial location, positioned just north of the town centre and providing direct access to the A16, which in turn offers convenient links to Grimsby and onward connections to the A180 and the Humber ports.
