LOCATION

Louth is a market town of approximately 17,000 people, famous for its thrice weekly market and cattle market. The town centre provides essential services for a large rural area and secondary schools, banks and shopping facilities. The town is famous for its sole proprietor independent retailers, including butchers, bakers and specialist clothing shops etc. In addition, the town accommodates the main High Street banks and national retailers including Boots the Chemist, WH Smith, Millets etc. There are 3 supermarkets in the town, being a Co-operative, Morrison's and Aldi.

The property occupies a prominent position on Ugate, one of the main routes through Louth, benefitting from high levels of pedestrian and vehicular visibility. It lies within easy walking distance of the Market Place and the town's principal shopping areas, which include a variety of independent specialist retailers and local services.
