LOCATION

Louth is a market town of approximately 17,000 people, famous for its thrice weekly market and cattle market. The town centre provides essential services for a large rural area and secondary schools, banks and shopping facilities. The town is famous for its sole proprietor independent retailers, including butchers, bakers and specialist clothing shops etc. In addition, the town accommodates the main High Street banks and national retailers including Boots the Chemist, WH Smith, Millets etc. There are 3 supermarkets in the town, being a Co-operative, Morrison’s and Aldi.

The property is found at the entrance of the New Market Hall off Rosemary Lane, with further entrances found off New Street and Cornmarket. The centre enjoys a good footfall and offers a multitude of established businesses.
