"AGENT'S COMMENTS"

'South House' is an impressive Georgian period town house offering timeless symmetrical design. Brimming with character, this family home is well positioned on the outskirts of the town yet opposite an area of green space and within walking distance of amenities and schools. This remarkable property offers carriage driveway leading the former Coach House now utilised as a two bedroom independent annex or holiday let, is set in 0.28 of an acre of lawned gardens and benefits from a modern yet sympathetic renovation to provide a functional family home, with a central open-plan living dining kitchen, living room with solid fuel stove and further garden room, four sizeable bedrooms and two family bathrooms. Set in the historic Market Town of Alford on the edge of the Lincolnshire Wolds, designated an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, this property offers the opportunity to purchase an impressive piece of Lincolnshire history to make your next home.

LOCATION

Alford is a market town situated at the foot of the Lincolnshire Wolds approximately 14 miles north-west of the seaside town of Skegness and 14 miles south of the market town of Louth. It has a wealth of amenities including doctors and dentists surgeries, a primary and two secondary schools, one of which is a grammar school. There are a variety of shops both independent and national. Eateries include pubs, restaurants, coffee shops and a variety of takeaways. Alford is a market town, with market days being on a Tuesday and Friday, as well hosting periodic craft markets. There are a range of clubs and societies for various ages.
